A painting depicting a dramatic scene from the Bible. In the center, Jesus Christ, wearing a red robe, walks across a dark blue sea on a path of white foam. He is reaching out his right hand towards five men in a small wooden boat. The boat is tilted slightly to the left. The men are dressed in various colors: red, blue, and yellow. One man is rowing with an oar. The background shows large, stylized yellow waves against a dark blue sky. The overall atmosphere is one of a powerful divine intervention.
